SNOW MONKEY TOWN
YAMANOUCHI
Yamanouchi Town is a popular tourist destination in Japan. Located in the northeast of Nagano Prefecture, it offers some of the most famous snow resorts in Japan including Shiga Kogen and Kita-Shiga Kogen. Also, the town has a well-known hot spring called Yudanaka & Shibu Onsen Resort, which is the only place in the world where visitors can see 'Snow Monkeys' bathing in a hot spring. Many tourists visit Yamanouchi Town year round as Yudanaka Station is well connected to Tokyo by the Shinkansen (bullet train) and a local limited express train. This destination is conveniently located about two and a half hours from Tokyo.

Located mainly around Joshin'etsu-kogen National Park, Shiga Kogen is the largest and most extensive ski area in Japan. At an altitude of 1,300 to 2,300 meters Shiga Kogen is the perfect place to enjoy skiing and snowboarding because of its fine powder snow. The area is surrounded by nature and cool in summer, making it a popular summer getaway as well.

Kita-Shiga Kogen offers snow sports in the winter and hiking amongst 150 varieties of alpine plants in the summer.

Yamanouchi Town's Yudanaka & Shibu Onsen Resort, which is dotted with nine hot springs, has been a popular bathing destination for over 1,300 years. Each of the springs flowing in and around this town offer different qualities and characteristics, meaning that visitors will find themselves able to enjoy a variety of bathing experiences.

Jigokudani Yaen-koen is a well-known tourist spot in Japan since it is the only place in the world where wild monkeys bathe in natural hot springs. Here, you’ll be able to get up close to wild monkeys that have inhabited the area since long ago.
SHIGA KOGEN

Wild Japanese monkeys living in the mountains visit Jigokudani Yaen-koen year round. During the winter, visitors can watch them bathe in hot springs, while baby monkeys can be seen between May and July. This particular attraction brings many people from around the world to the area.

SNOW MONKEY

Shiga Kogen is registered as a UNESCO Biosphere Reserve and is located within a national park. It offers magnificent red and yellow foliage in autumn and deep green foliage during summer. With mountains ranging from 1,200 to 2,300 meters in elevation, hiking and cycling are common activities during this season. Each season spanning from June through to October, which allow visitors to experience the precision natural landscapes. There are around 50 hotels in the Shiga Kogen area, catering to all budgets, travel styles and preferences.
