

<Introduction>

Find out the mystery of why beer and coffee tastes so good in Bizen ware cups!

Bizen pottery has been designated as a Japanese national craft and, with many Bizen potteries, in the Inbe area of Bizen City hometown of the craft, recently more and more foreign tourists are enjoying their visits, shopping, and pottery experiences.

Bizen ware is easy to heat, hard to cool, and preserves the fragrance of your drink. It can transform your beer or coffee into the most delicious cup. Explore the roots of Bizen ware to unravel this mystery and get a cup to enjoy the best coffee and beer in your life.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Enjoy the best coffee and beer of your life

Once you compare coffee and beer served in a cup of Bizen ware to other cups, you will understand through tasting exactly why Bizen ware is better, and why the taste is much better than a normal glass.

2. Visit the roots of Bizen ware pottery with a local guide (Pottery history lesson)

You can tour galleries of living national treasure potters, as well as up coming artists. You will meet active craftsmen and listen to their stories about Bizen ware pottery.

3. Make your own pottery with the craftsmen (pottery experience)

Even beginners, children or adults, can enjoy this experience of actually making your own cups and plates.

<Introduction>

Ride on a “Walking Bicycle”, a first-of-its-kind, it’s a new style of transportation developed in Okayama!

The Walking Bicycle, developed in Okayama, is faster than walking, has greater stability thanks to its three wheels, and is electronically assisted. Also, since your point of view is higher than a normal bicycle, you can see the city with a different view than usual. A local guide will teach you how to ride, so beginners can also easily join too. When you get tired, you can take a rest at a famous Japanese confectionery shop which is next to Okayama Castle, or a popular cafe.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Try a unique Walking Bicycle with a local guide (Back alley tour)

Take a “Walking Bicycle” ride through back alleys with unique atmosphere around Okayama Castle and Korakuen Garden, led by a guide who knows the local area.

2. See a shrine near Okayama Castle much loved by the locals (Okayama shrine lesson)

You can visit the historical Okayama Shrine, built in 860AD, and listen to the stories and history of the Shinto shrine, Okayama Castle and Korakuen Garden.

3. Eat the sweet that the castle lords loved (Local sweets experience)

During your Walking Bicycle tour, stop by a Japanese confectionery shop that has been open for generations and eat “Otemanju”, a famous local sweet.

<Introduction>

Learn and perform Wadaiko together with the Kurashiki Tenryo Taiko drum performance group!

Through history, drums were used as a tool to communicate during hunting, but over the years, they developed in the Occident as a musical instrument. However, in the Orient, they were not just musical instruments, but also a means of communication with the Gods. Wadaiko is a general term for percussion instruments that has been passed down in Japan since ancient times. After observing a professional Taiko drummers performance, you can have a workshop session with everyone and learn to play on an actual Taiko drum yourself.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Learn the history of the drum in the Occident and the Orient (Wadaiko Lecture)

Learn the differences between the history and types of drums in the Occident and Orient, and learn about the Japanese Taiko in Japan.

Learn the basics of Taiko playing in a fun and easy way!

2. Watch a Japanese Drummers performance, and learn from the professionals themselves (Wadaiko experience)

After watching the Kurashiki Tenryo Taiko group perform a powerful demonstration of the Taiko, you can learn to play for yourself in a workshop class.

3. Play a song along with professional performers (Wadaiko Workshop and performance)

Create an unforgettable memory by learning the song from the workshop, and playing alongside the performers of the Kurashiki Tenryo Taiko group.

Choose your own tailored accommodation in the centre of the Seto Inland Sea and enjoy your stay and good food!

The Kasaoka Islands are a group of 31 islands in the center of the Seto Inland Sea. Of the 31 islands, only 7 have people living on them. This time, you can choose from the following options: an inn and restaurant of a fisherman on Takashima Island, a vegan restaurant and inn on Shiraiishi Island, or an inn run by an owner who loves occidental home style cooking on Obito Island. You can consult your own dedicated concierge about accommodation, meals, and any other experiences you would like to have.

<What you will experience> ✳ 3 points

1. A dedicated concierge with a selection of three unique dining experiences (Personal Tailored Experience)

You can tell the concierge your preferences, and you will receive information which tells you the features, ingredients, and cooking methods of each of the three restaurants. The concierge will also handle all requests and reservations that you may desire.

2. Consult your concierge for a tailored activity (Marine Activity experience)

There are many marine experiences available such as a fishing experience run by local Kasaoka Island fishermen, or sightseeing options such as stand up paddleboarding or sea kayaking where you can leisurely enjoy the sea!

3. Explore the islands by walking with your own guide from the accommodation (Walk the Island with a personal local guide)

Spend a relaxing time strolling around the island seeing the sights of the sea and mountains. You will have a local guide from the Island, so you can explore freely.

Unravel the mystery of the temple that attracts your heart with strange festival and art.

The Naked Man Festival held in Saidaiji Temple, Okayama City, is said to be one of the strangest festivals in Japan. It is held in February, and is visited by many tourists from Japan and overseas. Many old paintings (and folk tales) still remain at Saidaiji Temple, and by reading these, you can learn the story of the Naked Man Festival and the history of the temple. There are also many art works by world-famous contemporary artists on display in the precincts that you can visit. Finally, you can also partake in the Gomakitou burning prayer ritual that prays for your various wishes.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Learn the history of the temple from one of the temple priests (History Scroll tour)

A high priest will use the old paintings of good fortune held on the temple grounds to explain various stories about the history of the temple and the Naked Man festival.

2. Pray with the priest (Gomakitou ritual experience)

You will write on a wooden tile prayers for your sake and for the sake of your loved ones. When you put them into the flames that the high priests are burning, they will pray with you to fulfil those prayers.

3. Make bamboo lanterns with a craftsman (Bamboo lantern Making)

With the help of a professional craftsman, you will make a lantern out of bamboo. Those are high quality made and can be used as a beautiful interior design accent.

You can experience Miyajima through the eyes of a local guide familiar with the area!

Miyajima Island, home of the Itsukushima Shrine, is an island with a circumference of about 30km. Itsukushima Shrine on Miyajima is a famous World Heritage site, much like the Sydney Opera House, Mont Saint-Michel, or the Statue of Liberty. The shrine is one of the most popular places in Japan among foreign tourists. This tour will take you on a special route that can never be experienced by ordinary travelers. You will approach the island from the sea, avoiding the typical routes used by tourists. The guide know the island well and will provide a once in a life-time tour which any tourists, even those with yachts, cannot experience.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Experience the historic worship route of the seven ocean shrines of Itsukushima (Nanaura Meguri )

Nanaura meguri is a traditional tour of the seven shrines on the coast of Miyajima. This is a special historic route which has been used since ancient times to practice a ritual to cleanse the mind and body. You will be able to take pictures of the Miyajima's "floating" shrine gate (torii) at sea. The photos you will have the opportunity to take will surely become a special memento of your visit. This experience is one which no other tourist can experience.

2. Relax on a raft floating in the Seto Inland Sea (Cafe on the water)

Enjoy a coffee break on a floating raft that grows the famous Hiroshima Oysters which are rich in minerals that have flowed out of the virgin forests of Miyajima, said to be the island of Gods.

3. Eat fresh seasonal regional seafood (Seafood Gourmet)

The owner of an accommodation will use handpicked seafood to prepare Japanese specialties like tempura and sashimi. You can enjoy a campfire or outdoor bath, and relax after the meal.

<Introduction>

Enjoy the charm of a remote island where international artists are active!

Momoshima in Onomichi city, is a small island with a community of artists aiming to revitalise the rural island through contemporary art. A locally and internationally renowned artist, now resident of the island, serves as the directors of ART BASE MOMOSHIMA, an art centre established in a school that had been closed for 12 years. There are also many attractive accommodations options available on Momoshima, such as an artistically renovated Japanese-style building, or a relaxed stay in an entire villa with a view of the sea.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Tailored tour at multiple spots (Contemporary Art Tour)

You can experience the creative revitalization movement on the local and remote islands through artistic displays at the once closed junior high school building, the 60 years old movie theater transformed in a piece of art and other artworks displayed around Momoshima.

2. Relax in a unique bath with private view (Goemonburo experience)

Enjoy a soak in a 3 tonnes traditional Japanese cast iron bath, called a goemonburo, with a private view overlooking the Seto Inland Sea. After your bath, you can enjoy contemporary art works with delicious sake at the Bar corner.

3. Relax on the private beach in front of your accommodation (Marine activity with food & drink)

You are only one second to the sea from your accommodation. Experience marine sports, fishing, barbecues, and sunset dinners at the beach just in front of your accommodation.

<Introduction>

Enjoy a sake tour of three famous sake breweries with your own local guide

Saijo in Hiroshima Prefecture is one of Japan's famous sake brewing towns, along with Nada in Hyogo prefecture, and Fushimi in Kyoto. Here, you can find 7 sake breweries within 1km walk from each other. The area is getting popular due to the recent sake boom in Western countries. Your guide will take you on a walk down the streets where vestiges of the past remain, and you will visit three characteristic sake breweries, learn about their history, and enjoy the sake that each brewery has made with care in their own way.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. A special sake tasting experience at three carefully selected sake breweries (Luxury Tasting Party)

Learn about Japanese sake with a special sake tasting tour at 3 different styled sake breweries: one that sticks to traditional methods, one that challenges the modern taste, and one which is a regular winner at National sake competitions.

2. Walk through the cityscape where the historic atmosphere still remains (Sakagura-dori street Tour)

You will learn about the history of sake brewing in Saijo, which flourished as a post town during the Edo era. You can also observe the traditional Japanese style buildings which still remain from that era.

3. Taste local dishes prepared using Japanese Sake (Optional Bishu Nabe experience)

Indulge in Kamotsuru Shuzo Brewery's "Bishu Nabe" hotpot, a local style hotpot which is made with Sake provided by breweries and restaurants at the annual Saijo sake festival.

&lt;Introduction&gt;

In this hands-on experience you can learn the necessary etiquette and techniques of Kyudo Archery!

Kyudo is one of the main martial arts mastered by samurai. Kyudo, which literally means “Way of the Bow”, has been used since ancient times as a method for worshipping the gods, and is revered for its beauty and etiquette. Learn about these spiritual and historical connections as you are guided through Hiroshima castle, and experience this martial art first hand from learning its etiquette to trying to shot a real arrow in a Kyudo training space. Adults and children alike can enjoy the lessons of a specialised instructor. Here, you will experience the goal of Kyudo, obtaining the state of "shin-zen-bi, which means "truth-goodness-beauty". This state happens when the archer shoots the arrow correctly (truth) with virtuous spirit and attitude towards all persons and all things (goodness), and finally the beautiful shooting will come to realization naturally (beauty).

&lt;What you will experience&gt; ✂ 3 points

1. Take a guided tour of Hiroshima Castle when it is beautifully lit (Night Tour)

Your guide will lead you through the history of Hiroshima castle, its deep relation with greater Japan and the chronicles of warlord Mori, who was the first lord of the castle.

2. Drink the Sake that was dedicated to the gods in ancient Japanese Festivals (Sacred Sake Experience)

Since ancient times, Kyudo has included many displays of offerings in sacred rituals to the Shinto gods. Learn the proper etiquette while sampling this divine sake intended to purify one's body.

3. Learn and practice Kyudo techniques with a specialised instructor (Fun Kyudo Archery Experience)

Usually in Kyudo, you cannot shoot an arrow until you have mastered the basics. But here, under the instruction of a specialised teacher, you can experience using a real bow and arrow to shoot a target in a safe, private area at your own pace.

<Introduction>

Morning summit trekking for the body and mind!

There is a small mountain that has been loved by locals since ancient times, and it is located about 10 minutes' walk from Hiroshima station. This mountain is said to protect the city of Hiroshima. Because of this mountain, there are many shrines and temples in the area. The road you climb is full of nature and red Torii gates. You will forget you are in the city, until you reach the top to see a superb view of the city of Hiroshima, the sea of Setouchi and the surrounding mountains. Here, you can also enjoy a tea ceremony and calligraphy at a special location and refresh your mind and body.

<What you will experience> ✨ 3 points

1. Learn the overview and architecture of Hiroshima's Toshogu shrine with a local guide (History Lesson)

Toshogu Shrine has been watching over Hiroshima for more than 400 years. It is a good place to talk about pre-war as well as post-war history. Here, your guide will walk you through the full history of Hiroshima.

2. A mountain walk where fresh air and mysterious energy flows (Early morning walking)

The mountain road, lined with red Torii gates to the Kinko Inari Shrine, is so rich in nature that you forget you are in the city. The walk is only a 15-20 minute climb, it is a pleasant and easy exercise.

3. Enjoy Japanese culture while watching the breathtaking scenery (Tea ceremony and calligraphy experience)

Experience the famous tea ceremony and, with an instructor, learn Japanese calligraphy while witnessing the sight of Hiroshima waking up in the early morning, refreshing not only your body, but also your mind.

Learn the stories about the atomic bombing not featured in any guidebooks!

Hiroshima, the first city in history which experienced an atomic bomb, is visited by people from all over the world seeking peace. The typical route for foreign tourists is the Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum, where you can visit the World Heritage Atomic Bomb Dome and learn of the tragic events of the bombings. However, on this tour you will experience many valuable stories about the atomic bombing and reconstruction that local people remember and value, many of these aren't part of the standard tourist experience. This tour will take you to spots specially selected by your local guide, travelling off the standard tourist route by private taxi (private fleet).

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Private taxi and local guide tour (Peace history tour)

You will be able to make a prayer for peace with your guide around Kinko Inari Shrine, Shukkeien Garden, Hiroshima Castle and Mitaki Dera Temple. You will hear the valuable stories about the atomic bombing, as well as the revival in the aftermath.

2. Prayers of peace and happiness through origami (Paper crane folding experience)

You will learn how to make the paper cranes, a symbol in Japan for peace and happiness. Take your own home as a handcrafted souvenir.

3. Anoint the Atomic Bomb Memorial with spring water used in the Peace Memorial Ceremony (Water offering experience)

Make a prayer for peace by anointing one Atomic Bomb Memorial Monument with the spring water from Mitaki Dera temple that is used at the Peace Memorial Ceremony on August 6th, commemorating when the Atomic Bomb was dropped on Hiroshima.

<Introduction>

Enjoy the cityscape where the scenes of the Edo period still remain!

Takehara City flourished in the brewing and salt making industry since the early Edo period. Takehara is known as the "Little Kyoto" because it has a very beautiful cityscape, with old mansions of great merchants, historical temples, sake breweries and more. Stroll through the city in a kimono, tour the brewery, experience bamboo crafts, there are many Japanese culture experiences you can enjoy here. For lunch, visit a restaurant with a wide selection of local sake and salt. Stay at a hotel in a renovated old Japanese style house where you can also participate in the experience of making salt.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Experience the old town (Kimono Fitting & Shopping)

In a renovated Edo era building called Takeraku, see the work of a professional dressing a young lady in a kimono and have a commemorative photo of you taken with her.

2. Visit the workshop of the skilled bamboo craftsmen (Bamboo Craftsmen experience)

Takehara Machinami Bamboo Studio, is located in a store renovated from an old storehouse. Here you can make a handmade windmill, under the careful guidance of the master craftsmen. Even if it's made of the same material, you can see the fascinating individuality that each person puts into their work, no two will ever be the same.

3. Visit a long established Sake Brewery (Sake lesson and tasting)

Under the guidance of the brewer, you will visit a sake brewery which people cannot usually enter. Taste five kinds of fine sake and, as a souvenir, receive a bottle (Ryusei, 720 ml).

<Introduction>

Observe the work of traditional craftsmen and experience making your own original piece

In Japan, one of the tools to enjoy the hot summer atmosphere is a round fan called Uchiwa. Wearing the traditional yukata (summer wear resembling to a kimono) and geta (wooden sandals) while holding a fan to go see the fireworks is still a summer tradition. You can experience making your own fan in Japan's biggest Uchiwa fan production city, Marugame! You can even more enjoy making memories of your trip by visiting, your fan in hand, the Marugame Castle, which has the tallest stone wall in Japan, and the beautiful Japanese garden Nakatsu Manzoen where you can feel Japanese atmosphere.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Tour with a local guide (cycling tour)

With the help of a local guide specialized in the area, enjoy the comfortable breeze while cycling around the touristic attractions of Marugame City such as Marugame Castle and Nakatsu Manzoen.

2. Traditional craftsmen teach you (Original fan making experience)

After observing a variety of fans from everyday items to artistic works, enjoy the experience of making an original fan under the guidance of a craftsman.

3. Indigo dyeing craftsman teach you (Original indigo dyed piece making experience)

Listen to stories about indigo dyeing at the craftsman's workshop and enjoy dyeing a handkerchief, scarf or a T-shirt in the indigo dyeing experience.

<Introduction>

Have your journey coordinated by a couple who moved to Shodoshima after falling in love with the Island!

Shodoshima is an island popular for people to make for a 6 nights 7days pilgrimage. The pilgrimage route is extremely hilly, and the main temple is in a mountain cave. The organisers of this experience used to run a facility for pilgrimage tourists in Matsuyama, Ehime prefecture, but since then, they have moved to Shodoshima and will showcase the charm of the island and show you its spiritual spots. You can experience mountain climbing, hiking, visiting temples, and performing the sutras.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Lead your own tour with the maps and materials in your own hand (Self-Guided Tour)

Discuss with the coordinators on how to best enjoy Shodoshima, and you will have a tailored itinerary based on your interests. The reservations and other needs will be taken care of by the coordinators.

2. Enjoy the journey of Shugendo which has been practiced since long ago.

Have your trip coordinated by a couple who have moved from Matsuyama, Ehime, after falling in love with Shodoshima. They will show you many stunning temples, and you will experience Shugendo, a unique sect of Buddhism that is closely connected to the island.

3. You can also travel with the coordinators

The coordinators are fluent in English. If you choose to travel with a guide, then they can show you all the parts of Shodoshima and the charm of the island. (Optional)

<Introduction>

Be guided by a New Zealand captain who fell in love with the Seto Inland Sea.

The start of the trip is in Kamijima, where sailors who have sailed all the seas around the world have decided to settle down. Sailing on a private 60ft Catamaran, enjoy the beautiful scenery of nature, the seaside town and the traditional charm of the Setouchi islands. The trip finishes with a sunset cruise overlooking the night view of Onomichi Port. On this tour, you will enjoy the beauty of Japan with a luxury cruising local guide from New Zealand who knows the area well. If you would like a bespoke tour, that can also be arranged for with advance notice.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. See the Setouchi Sunset from a luxury catamaran Yacht (Sunset Cruise)

Seeing the sun setting into the Seto Inland sea from a luxury catamaran yacht is a once in a lifetime experience, a memory that you will never forget.

2. Visit one of Japan's Greatest Shrines which houses the largest collection of Samurai weapons and armors.

Visit Oyamazumi Shrine, one of the 4 greatest shrines of Japan, which has a treasure house with historically important and famous Samurai armors and swords, and has a 2600 year old Camphor Tree.

3. You can also enjoy food on the boat if you book in advance.

An island chef can prepare a meal from fresh local ingredients to enjoy on the catamaran while cruising.

<Introduction>

Be guided around the quiet islands of Kamijima by a New Zealander who visited once and never left.

Kamijima is a group of islands with no traffic lights, slightly off the main Shimanami Kaido cycling route. While cycling, you will see quaint town scenes, and narrow alleyways that add to the atmosphere of this local tour. The focus of this tour is on the interactions with the people who live on the island, and learning about life on a quiet Japanese Island. The cycling route is called the Yumeshima Kaido, which literally means "Dream island road". The route will take you past several panoramic views of the Seto Inland sea, and you will stop at a welcoming homely cafe for a gentle and fresh meal. This is a slow tour, so even those who are not familiar with cycling can still easily join and enjoy the tour.

<What you will experience> ✂ 3 points

1. Experience local Japan.

Experience the history and culture of rural Japan and the Kamijima islands, stopping and talking to people and witnessing the daily life on the islands.

2. Relax at cozy cafes around the Islands.

Lunch will be at one of the comfortable cafes; such as a bagel shop in a 100 years old house, or a farmhouse cafe, or a kindergarten renovated to be a cute book cafe. Option is decided by the day of the tour.

3. Shimanami Kaido Guided Tour is also available.

After cycling the islands, if you are interested in cycling along the main Shimanami Kaido cycling route, the guide is also very familiar with the route and spots to stop.

&lt;Introduction&gt;

Experience the daily life of living in a mountain village!

Uchiko Town is a town that still retains its cultural and historical streetscape, and it is visited by many local and foreign tourists. The stone pavements around town give the atmosphere of the old period of Japan. Recently, foreigners are coming to visit places which have been transformed into touristic spots, and they are showing interest in the daily lives of local people. Everywhere in Japan cities, you can eat tempura and soba (buckwheat noodles). However, here, you will go harvest your own tempura ingredients and enjoy the soba noodles that you will make yourself.

&lt;What you will experience&gt; ※ 3 points

1. Follow a local old lady to pick vegetables and make Tempura (Make Tempura with Seasonal Mountain plants)

Follow a local lady who knows where to pick seasonal edible wild plants. Learn from her how to make Japanese tempura after collecting all the ingredients.

2. Learn how to make soba noodles from the local soba master (Make Soba with your own hands)

You will learn how to make Soba, Japanese buckwheat noodle, in a noodle making workshop hosted by a local master.

3. Stay the night in the Japanese countryside and take a walk through nature

Stay in a 100-year-old old house and experience Japanese culture. Also, the surrounding area is surrounded by mountains changing colors every season, and giving you the opportunity to also harvest fruits such as Japanese persimmons.

<Introduction>

Enjoy the wonder of Japanese architecture with a professional guide!

Ozu City is a region blessed with a beautiful rural environment characterised by mountain ranges and the Hajikawa river that flows through the centre. Today, the old town around the city center retains an atmosphere reminiscent of bygone decades, with nostalgic stone-paved alleys and old-fashioned houses of both Edo and Meiji Period architecture. Ozu Castle, and Garyu Sanso Villa, are great examples of Japanese architecture that your professional guide will explain in detail. As you walk around the city, you will encounter many other historical and cultural buildings.

<What you will experience> ※ 3 points

1. Be guided by a Spanish architecture specialist with local knowledge of the area (Historical City Walk)

Have a comprehensive and detailed guided tour with a Spanish specialist in architecture who knows all the cultural and historical value of the Ozu Town and the architecture it contains.

2. Learn the characteristics of Japanese Traditional wooden architecture (Ozu Castle Tour)

Learn not just about the history of the castle, but also about the Japanese traditional architecture techniques that have been used over 10 years to completely restore the castle tower.

3. Relax and enjoy one of the most scenic spots in the city (Garyu Sanso Villa Tour)

You can spend a healing and relaxing time, enjoying a rest at Garyu Sanso Villa. This is a beautiful villa that took 10 years to build and is full of beautiful artistic architecture and design, as well as a beautiful garden.
