With strong ties to its local climate and natural resources, Gunma has long fostered a unique culture of traditional crafts.

Takasaki Daruma is one of Japan's most famous lucky charms. The Daruma's black eyebrows and mustache symbolize the longevity of the cranes and turtles. Try your hand at painting them on your own Daruma doll.

TAKASAKI

Gunma produces the largest number of Modern Kokeshi dolls in all of Japan. Here you can experience making your very own original Kokeshi doll.

SHINTO

Local Foods

Enjoy delicious sake brewed with Gunma's pure water and savor traditional foods made from a food culture of wheat flour. Be sure to try sukiyaki made with Gunma's famous Joshu Wagyu beef.

Sake

Pure, natural water and the cool climate make Gunma's sake a must for anyone interested in Japanese rice wine. Please come and try it for yourself.

Sake Brewery Tour

You can visit local sake breweries and observe the brewing process. After the tour enjoy sake tasting to sample different varieties.

Sukiyaki

Enjoy sukiyaki made with local Gunma products such as Joshu Wagyu beef, konjac, Shimonita leeks, shiitake mushrooms, hakusai cabbage, and garland chrysanthemum.

Okkirikomi Noodles

Okkirikomi is a local Gunma dish. Wide, flat noodles are simmered with seasonal vegetables and mushrooms in either a soy sauce or miso based soup.

Yakimanju

Yakimanju is a hearty, traditional snack. The manju (soft wheat buns) are coated in a sweet and salty miso sauce and grilled over an open flame. It's the soul food of Gunma.

Mizusawa Udon

A local specialty of Ikaho Onsen, Mizusawa Udon is one of Japan's three famous types of udon noodles, characterized by a firm texture and glossy appearance.

SHIBUKAWA

Onsen

Gunma Prefecture has more than 400 hot spring sources and 100 onsen towns in which you can stay. Enjoy the quality and quantity of Gunma's many onsen as you relax in the Kanto region's top hot-spring area.

Kusatsu Onsen

Consistently ranked as one of the top three best onsen in Japan, Kusatsu Onsen has the highest natural flow of hot spring water in all of Japan. It's sulfurous, highly acidic waters are so famous for their healing effects that they've often been praised as "capable of curing any sickness except that of love".
