Connecting travelers with the local community
Learning about local traditional crafts and culture

We regularly offer “koto-experience” services that allow guests to explore the traditional culture of the region, connecting travelers with the local community and making their travels all the more enjoyable through experiences that expose them to the traditional culture and values unique to the region. We offer a variety of events, including a workshop to learn how to paint on Japanese candles (Kyoto traditional culture) and Maiko (apprentice geisha) performances where you can see traditional crafts worn by Maiko.
