Island Getaways

Yakushima

Designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1993, the island is famous for Japanese cedar known as yakusugi, including the famous Jomon Sugi tree which some have estimated to be 7,200 years old. In addition to trekking tours to Jomon Sugi, enjoying marine activities in the beautiful ocean surrounding the island is also recommended.

Access: From Kagoshima Airport, 35 minutes by plane. From Kagoshima Port, about 2 hours by high-speed boat (jetfoil).

Amami Island

Amami Oshima, the "Galapagos of the East." The beautiful ocean, often referred to as "Amami blue," the second-largest mangrove forest in Japan, and the mysterious virgin forest where the Amami black rabbit can be found, are just some of the many reasons to visit Amami.

Access: From Kagoshima Airport, 50 minutes by plane. From Kagoshima Port, about 11 hours by ferry.
