Walk on air on the Chiba City Monorail

Ringling from rail, the Chiba City Monorail is one of the most remarkable suspension monorails in the world. Because there are no rails underneath, the high view from the windows makes you feel like you’re walking on air.

In March 1999, the monorail was registered in the Guinness Book of Records as having the longest running distance (15.2 km) of any suspended monorail.

Chibaminato → Chiba
Approx. 4 min., ¥200 per adult (¥160 child)

Chibaminato → Inducedem
Approx. 12 min., ¥200 per adult (¥160 child)

Benefits of the monorail

Good access to shopping
The Chiba City Monorail is a new hub. The Isetan Department Store is a short walk from Chiba City Station while the Monorail is a convenient method of transportation for shopping and sightseeing. The monorail also connects residents of Chiba City to the city’s major business districts.

Good view
Watching beautiful views, such as the Port of Chiba, from the Chiba City Monorail is another benefit. It’s a fantastic sight at the dawn of the season. If you are on the monorail and see the passenger cars, you will be able to see the beautiful view from the passenger cars.

If you find a shop or restaurant that interests you, why not go and see it?
