Popular Foods and Souvenirs from Okayama

Okayama is one of Japan’s leading fruit-producing prefectures. Parfaits, made with sweet fresh fruit, are one of many popular sweets dishes.

Fruit Parfait

Parfaits made with fresh Okayama fruit can be found all over Okayama City.

Fruit Picking

Enjoy picking a wide variety of fruits in Okayama, the Fruit Parfait City.

Thanks to its mild climate, Okayama is prime territory for rice production, which is used to create sake. Tofore is a sake that is made using a wide range of ingredients from Okayama.

Right: Local beer

The poetic style of sake that Okayama provides has been maintained since the days of feudal lords. Okayama’s unique Namazake has been selected in the top five of the National Sake Makers’ Association competition for eight consecutive years since 2009.

Okayama Souvenirs

Take home your very own package of fresh Okayama fruits. "Niigata" brand saké, coated with fresh Okayama rice, is bottled in the stylish Japanese paper "Mizuhiki", or "tied water" Japanese folding.

Shopping & Gourmet Dining

The area around Okayama city center features a number of commercial establishments including department stores, shopping malls, and a wide variety of specialty stores, making the area an ideal shopping district. Okayama offers diverse gourmet options, ranging from local specialties to international cuisine, and feels at home in various hospitality formats.

Varying seasonal dishes from both local and renowned chefs in Okayama are available to enjoy in Okayama City.
