SUGGESTED TOUR ROUTE

Hakone, Japan’s capital city, stands half an hour from Tokyo in the fascinating Yamanashi Prefecture. When in Tokyo with one or two days to spare, a side trip to Mt. Fuji, Hakone, Kamakura, or Nikko is recommended. All can be reached within a two-hour train or bus ride.

Mt. Fuji and Hakone

Japan’s tallest volcano, Mt. Fuji, stands majestically with its snow caps on in the snow-covered landscape. Hakone offers a variety of scenic spots for sightseeing and outdoor activities. The Hakone Open-Air Museum, located in Hakone, provides a unique and educational experience for visitors.

Mt. Fuji, a popular destination for both domestic and overseas tourists, is a UNESCO World Heritage site. The cosmodrome at Tanegashima, located in the southern part of Japan, is another popular destination for space enthusiasts and astronomers. The famous Iwami Ginzan silver mine, located in the southern part of Honshu, is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Hakone-koen, located in the heart of Hakone, offers a variety of scenic spots for sightseeing and outdoor activities. The Hakone Open-Air Museum, located in Hakone, provides a unique and educational experience for visitors.

Mt. Fuji and Hakone

Japan’s tallest volcano, Mt. Fuji, stands majestically with its snow caps on in the snow-covered landscape. Hakone offers a variety of scenic spots for sightseeing and outdoor activities. The Hakone Open-Air Museum, located in Hakone, provides a unique and educational experience for visitors.

Mt. Fuji, a popular destination for both domestic and overseas tourists, is a UNESCO World Heritage site. The cosmodrome at Tanegashima, located in the southern part of Japan, is another popular destination for space enthusiasts and astronomers. The famous Iwami Ginzan silver mine, located in the southern part of Honshu, is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Hakone-koen, located in the heart of Hakone, offers a variety of scenic spots for sightseeing and outdoor activities. The Hakone Open-Air Museum, located in Hakone, provides a unique and educational experience for visitors.

Mt. Fuji and Hakone

Japan’s tallest volcano, Mt. Fuji, stands majestically with its snow caps on in the snow-covered landscape. Hakone offers a variety of scenic spots for sightseeing and outdoor activities. The Hakone Open-Air Museum, located in Hakone, provides a unique and educational experience for visitors.

Mt. Fuji, a popular destination for both domestic and overseas tourists, is a UNESCO World Heritage site. The cosmodrome at Tanegashima, located in the southern part of Japan, is another popular destination for space enthusiasts and astronomers. The famous Iwami Ginzan silver mine, located in the southern part of Honshu, is a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Hakone-koen, located in the heart of Hakone, offers a variety of scenic spots for sightseeing and outdoor activities. The Hakone Open-Air Museum, located in Hakone, provides a unique and educational experience for visitors.
WHAT TO SEE
Kamakura Station Area
Enoshima Shrine: A short walk from the train station is one of the city's most celebrated sites, Enoshima Shrine, with majestic buildings at the stilted, and the concept was realized by the famous architect. The shrine is surrounded by beautiful gardens and waterways, offering a tranquil atmosphere.

Kamakura Station Area
Tsurugaoka Hachimangu Shrine: Situated on Kamakura's waterfront, this is one of Kamakura's most beautiful shrines.

Kamakura Shrine: Shimogamo Shrine: A short walk from the shrine is Shimogamo Shrine, with a beautiful garden and a history dating back to 798 AD. It is the best place for picking up fresh green tea leaves.

Kamakura Museum of National Treasures: Exhibits over 1000 items of art, sculpture, and crafts, and there are two more museums nearby. The oldest building is the Kamakura Museum, which houses over 2000 items of art and crafts. The next building is the Kamakura Museum of Modern Art, which houses over 2000 items of modern art and crafts. The last building is the Kamakura Museum of Contemporary Art, which houses over 2000 items of contemporary art and crafts.

WHAT TO SEE
Kamakura Station Area
Enoshima Shrine: A short walk from the station is one of the city's most celebrated sites, Enoshima Shrine, with majestic buildings at the stilted, and the concept was realized by the famous architect. The shrine is surrounded by beautiful gardens and waterways, offering a tranquil atmosphere.

Kamakura Station Area
Tsurugaoka Hachimangu Shrine: Situated on Kamakura's waterfront, this is one of Kamakura's most beautiful shrines.

Kamakura Shrine: Shimogamo Shrine: A short walk from the shrine is Shimogamo Shrine, with a beautiful garden and a history dating back to 798 AD. It is the best place for picking up fresh green tea leaves.

Kamakura Museum of National Treasures: Exhibits over 1000 items of art, sculpture, and crafts, and there are two more museums nearby. The oldest building is the Kamakura Museum, which houses over 2000 items of art and crafts. The next building is the Kamakura Museum of Modern Art, which houses over 2000 items of modern art and crafts. The last building is the Kamakura Museum of Contemporary Art, which houses over 2000 items of contemporary art and crafts.

Kamakura Station Area
Enoshima Shrine: A short walk from the station is one of the city's most celebrated sites, Enoshima Shrine, with majestic buildings at the stilted, and the concept was realized by the famous architect. The shrine is surrounded by beautiful gardens and waterways, offering a tranquil atmosphere.

Kamakura Station Area
Tsurugaoka Hachimangu Shrine: Situated on Kamakura's waterfront, this is one of Kamakura's most beautiful shrines.

Kamakura Shrine: Shimogamo Shrine: A short walk from the shrine is Shimogamo Shrine, with a beautiful garden and a history dating back to 798 AD. It is the best place for picking up fresh green tea leaves.

Kamakura Museum of National Treasures: Exhibits over 1000 items of art, sculpture, and crafts, and there are two more museums nearby. The oldest building is the Kamakura Museum, which houses over 2000 items of art and crafts. The next building is the Kamakura Museum of Modern Art, which houses over 2000 items of modern art and crafts. The last building is the Kamakura Museum of Contemporary Art, which houses over 2000 items of contemporary art and crafts.

Kamakura Station Area
Enoshima Shrine: A short walk from the station is one of the city's most celebrated sites, Enoshima Shrine, with majestic buildings at the stilted, and the concept was realized by the famous architect. The shrine is surrounded by beautiful gardens and waterways, offering a tranquil atmosphere.

Kamakura Station Area
Tsurugaoka Hachimangu Shrine: Situated on Kamakura's waterfront, this is one of Kamakura's most beautiful shrines.

Kamakura Shrine: Shimogamo Shrine: A short walk from the shrine is Shimogamo Shrine, with a beautiful garden and a history dating back to 798 AD. It is the best place for picking up fresh green tea leaves.

Kamakura Museum of National Treasures: Exhibits over 1000 items of art, sculpture, and crafts, and there are two more museums nearby. The oldest building is the Kamakura Museum, which houses over 2000 items of art and crafts. The next building is the Kamakura Museum of Modern Art, which houses over 2000 items of modern art and crafts. The last building is the Kamakura Museum of Contemporary Art, which houses over 2000 items of contemporary art and crafts.

CLIMATE
Kamakura has a mild climate, with six months of rainy season and six months of dry season. The climate is temperate, with mild winters and warm summers.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.

CLIMATE
Kamakura National Park: A local city landmark that is a popular spot for sightseeing and walking in the park.