HAKONE

Hakone (箱根), about 1 hr. 30 min, by rail from Shinjuku and Tokyo stations, is one of the most popular inland tourist resorts in Japan. Wedged between Mt. Fuji and Izu Peninsula, it is a large region encircled by several forested mountains and has a beauty dramatically accented by deep glens and ravines.

In the feudal era, Hakone was a very important checkpoint that safeguarded the security of Edo (now Tokyo) as the seat of the Shogunate. Historical relics and documents on display are well preserved. Several museums are open to the public.

Sightseeing highlights are Lake Ashi, nestled in dense forest, Owakudani (Great Boiling Valley) with its plumes of sulfurous steam gushing upward, and numerous hot spring rest spots in attractive natural settings. Hakone's wide variety of travel diversions draws large numbers of tourists year-round.

Places of Interest:

Hakone-Yumoto (箱根湯本), 1 hr. 30 min. by Odakyu Railways' limited express from Shinjuku, is a main gateway to the Hakone Onsen District. Yumoto Onsen, the oldest in the district, sprang up at the confluence of the Sukumo River and the Hayakawa River, the outlet of Lake Ashi. Well-appointed inns are located in quiet settings along the picturesque gorge.

Miyanoshita (宮ノ下), 25 min. by rail from Hakone-Yumoto, is the most thriving spa town in Hakone, with many excellent hotels and inns of cause souvenir shops. This spa is very popular with foreign travelers. It is a starting point for side tours to Lake Ashi, Gora Onsen and the Sengokuhara Plain. Delightful walks and drives can be enjoyed through the wooded hills and vales.

Gora (強羅), 40min. by rail from Hakone-Yumoto. Gora Park (強羅公園), a 5-min. walk from Gora Station, is notable well-designed park with characteristic huge rocks by volcanic activities in the area. Passing through the rose-draped archway, visitors enjoy a stroll along brick paths. The main attraction is a gigantic fountain pond. The park boasts a bougainvillea house and a tropical botanical garden. Hours: 9:00-17:00 Admission: ¥550

Owakudani (大涌谷, Great Boiling Valley), 8 min. by ropeway from Sounzan, lies in the ancient crater of Mt. Kamiyama. The entire gorge reeks of sulfurous fumes. Clouds of steam rise from crevasses, hot springs bubble out, and in some cases, hot water has been tapped and piped to distant places.

Lake Ashi (芦ノ湖), 724 m above sea level, is a principal attraction of Hakone. It has a circumference of 19 km with an aquatic area of 690 ha. The lake abounds in black bass and trout, which makes angling a main lei-sure activity, along with boating. It is also well known for the inverted reflection of Mt. Fuji seen on a clear day. Regular plea-sure boat service links Togendai or Kojiri on the north and Moto-Hakone or Hakone-Machi on the south, some with a stopover at Hakone-en Park en route.

Sengokuhara (仙石原), 30 min. by bus from Hakone-Yumoto, is another enjoyable spot. In autumn, Sengokuhara Heights (仙石原高原) has a vast inclined plane covered with golden-colored Japanese pampas grass at the foot of Mt. Daigatake. Choanji Temple (長安寺), 1-min. walk from Sengoku Bus Stop, built in 1356 and rebuilt at the present location in 1655, is famous for its red leaves (especially in mid-Nov.) in the backyard where 250 stone images of Buddha's disciples with fascinating expression. Some characteristic museums are situated in this area such as Hakone Botanical Garden of Wetlands (箱根湿生花園) which displays 1700 species of marsh and alpine plants, Lalique Museum Hakone (箱根ラリック美術館), Museum of Saint-Exupéry and The Little Prince (星の王子さまミュージアム), Pola Museum of Art (ポーラ美術館) and Venetian Glass Museum (箱根ガラスの森美術館).

③ Narukawa Art Museum (成川美術館) 40 min. by bus from Hakone-Yumoto Sta. to Moto-Hakone Bus Stop. Commanding a panoramic view of Lake Ashi and Mt. Fuji, Narukawa Art Museum is a unique museum showing only modern Japanese-style paintings. More than 100 paintings are displayed. Hours: 9:00–17:00. Admission: ¥1,300. <http://www.narukawamuseum.co.jp/en/>

building is of architectural interest, blending into the surrounding nature and greenery. It houses a event hall, restaurant, and sunny café with expansive glass windows. Hours: 9:00–17:00. Occasionally closed to prepare exhibitions. Admission: ¥1,800. <http://www.polamuseum.or.jp/english/>

⑥ Hakone Sekisho (Checkpoint) (箱根関所) During the Edo period, a nationwide road network was developed in Japan; along the way many Sekisho (checkpoints) were established for the purpose of inspecting travelers and loads. Located on the south side of the lake, Hakone Sekisho was one of the most important checkpoints. A historically accurate restoration now stands on the site. A small museum displays artifacts of the period, such as travel certificates, officials' diaries and Samurai weaponry. A few minutes' walk to the north along Route 1 is a remaining section the ancient trail that travelers of the Edo period passed along. It is flanked with imposing cedar trees said to be more than 350 years old. Hours: 9:00–17:00 (Mar.–Nov.), –16:30 (Dec.–Feb.). Admission: ¥500. <http://www.hakonesekisyo.jp/english/>

KAMAKURA

Kamakura (鎌倉), 1 hr. by train from Tokyo, was once the seat of a feudal government established in 1192 as the first of its kind in Japan. It is now noted for its historic sites, seaside bathing beach, and residential district within commuting distance to Tokyo.

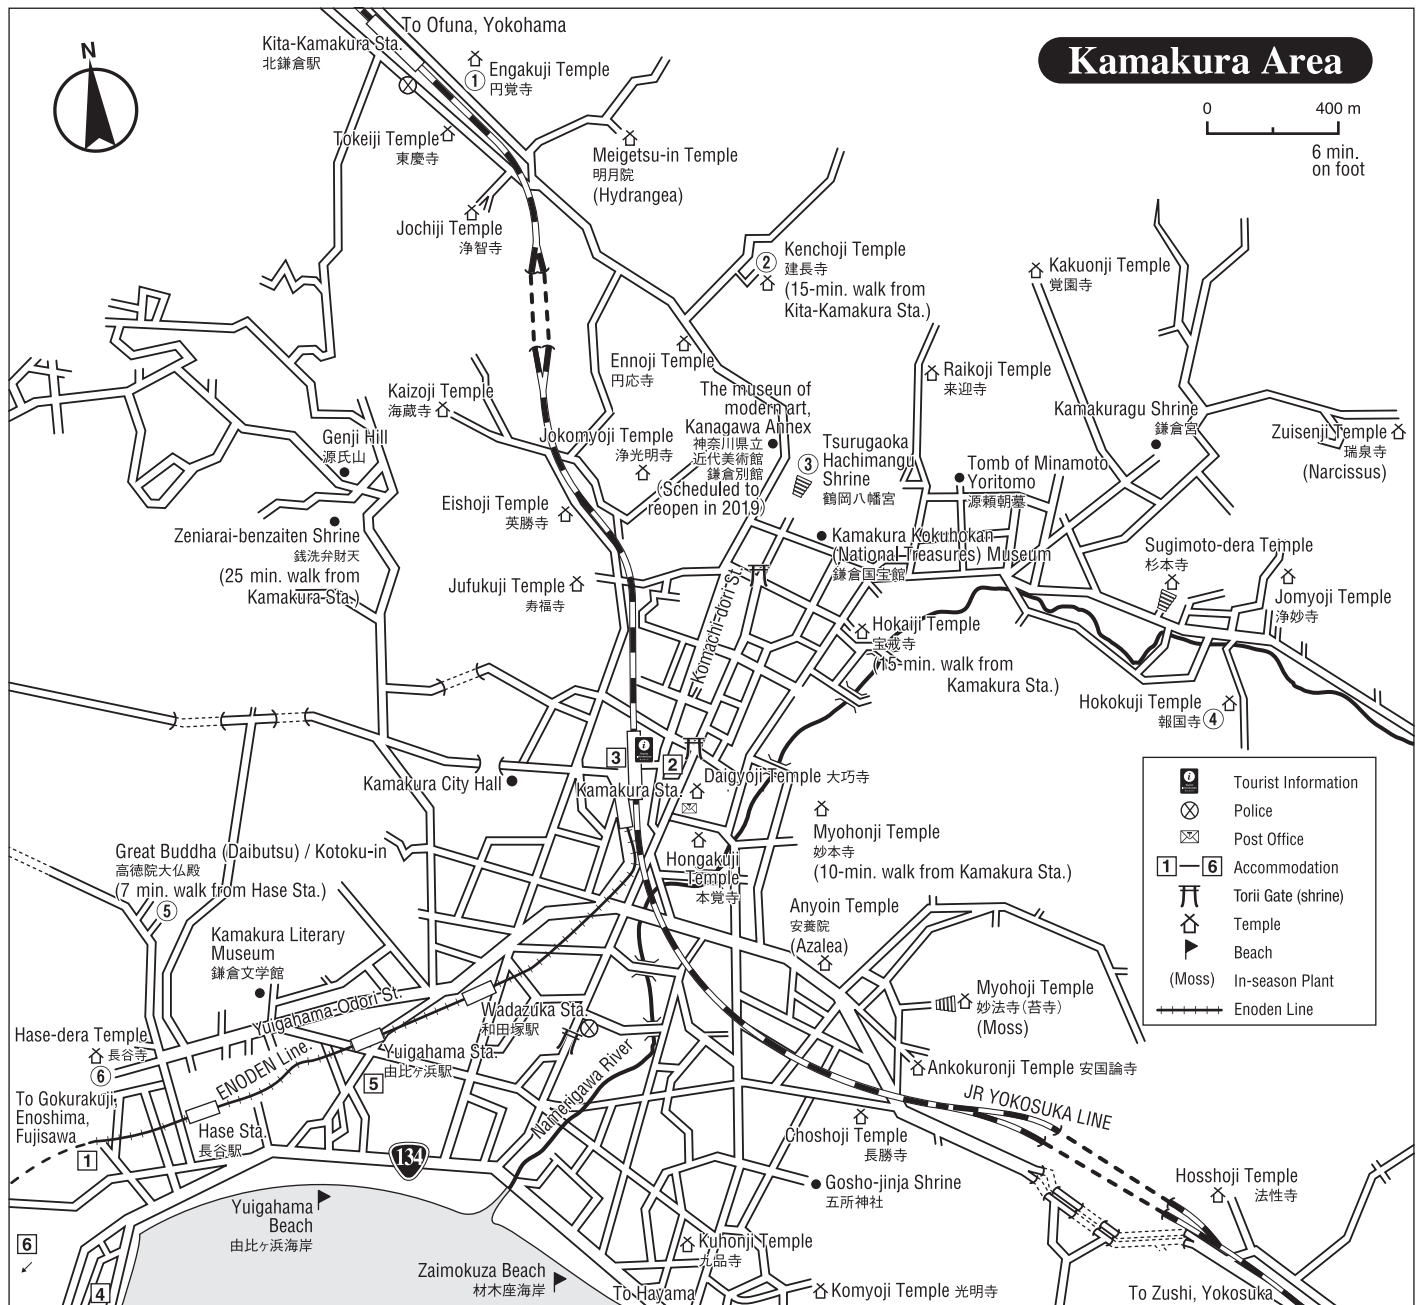

Flanked and fortified by wooded mountains on three sides and Sagami Bay on the south, the city has many renowned temples and shrines as well as well-preserved historical treasures surrounded by beautiful hills in a rustic setting. Exploring on your own is the best way to enjoy a tour of Kamakura.

The Great Buddha, the magnificent Tsurugaoka Hachimangu Shrine, Zen temples and picturesque Enoshima Island draw large numbers of visitors to Kamakura throughout the year.

Getting to Kamakura from Tokyo:

*See p. 7 for admission and opening times.

①Engakuji Temple (円覚寺) Next to Kita-Kamakura Sta. stands one of the major Zen temples in Kamakura. Zen is a school of Buddhism that was influential during the Kamakura period in the 13th century. Nestled on a hill deeply forested with cedar trees, the temple grounds have an otherworldly, tranquil atmosphere. Hours: 8:00–16:30 (Mar.–Nov.), –16:00 (Dec.–Feb.). Admission: ¥300.

emerging from its stump. 60 stone steps lead up to the main shrine, which offers views over Kamakura. Admission: ¥200 for Treasure House.

⑤Great Buddha (大仏) This 11.3-m-tall bronze statue of Buddha is designated as a National Treasure of Japan. It is said that this Buddha was once covered with gold and housed in an even larger building when it was first erected in the 13th century. Hours: 8:00–17:30 (Apr.–Sep.), –17:00 (Oct.–Mar.). Admission: ¥300.

⑥Hase-dera Temple (長谷寺) A wide variety of flowers, changing with the seasons, bloom on the grounds of this temple: peonies, hydrangeas, fragrant olives, camellias and many more. Sited high on a hill, the main temple enjoys a fine view. Hours: 8:00–17:00 (Mar.–Sep.), –16:30 (Oct.–Feb.). Admission: ¥400.

Goodwill Guide Groups offer tourists from overseas local tours guided in English or other languages. The guides are registered with JNTO and display the badge shown. As they are volunteers, there is no charge for their service. You are only expected to pay for their transportation, admission to tourist facilities if you visit any and their meals if you eat with them.
