Sendai, Matsushima and Hiraizumi

Sendai (仙台), pop. 1,088,669 (as of Oct. 2018), the old castle town of the Date clan, provides a typical example of Tohoku culture (northeastern part of Honshu). Sendai is nationally known for its gala “Star Festival” in early August.

Matsushima (松島), or Pine-clad Islands, noted for its scenic variety, is one of Japan’s three most celebrated scenic spots, along with Miyajima near Hiroshima and Amanohashidate near Kyoto. Matsushima is the name given to the whole area surrounding Matsushima Bay, which extends for 17 km from east to west and 13 km from north to south. The bay forms the innermost part of Sendai Bay, bounded by Oshika Peninsula. Countless large and small pine-clad islands are scattered in the bay, presenting an ever-changing landscape to the traveler circling the bay by sightseeing boats. The view is most breathtaking just before sunset.

Hiraizumi (平泉) is what remains of a centuries-old town similarly constructed to the ancient capital Kyoto, by the Fujiwara family, the then-powerful clan. It is renowned as the site of Chuson-ji Temple.

"Aobago"—Site of Sendai Castle (仙台城跡) can be reached in 20 min. by sightseeing bus service "Loople Sendai" from Sendai Sta. The castle was built on the top of 132-m-high Aobaya hill in 1601 by Date Masamune, a powerful lord of the northern provinces. It was famed as an impregnable fortress at that time, guarded by the high rock walls of Hirosegawa River to the east and the deep Tatsunokuchi Valley to the south. The castle served as a residence of the Date family for 270 years. The castle grounds are now a park, and Gokoku Shrine and Aoba Castle Exhibition Hall stand on the site of the destroyed main keep. Nearby is the bronze equestrian statue of Masamune in full armor. From here you can command the whole city and the Pacific Ocean. To the rear of the castle grounds, a 110-m-long bridge over the valley leads to Yagiyama Zoological Park. [Park details] Open: 9:00–16:45 (enter by 16:00), –16:00 (enter by 15:00; Nov.–Feb.). Closed: Mon. (or the following day after the holiday when Mon. falls on a national holiday) & Dec. 28–Jan. 4. Admission: ¥480.

Osaki Hachimangu Shrine (大崎八幡宮), next 20 min. from the site of Sendai castle by "Loople Sendai" bus or 20 min. by local bus from Sendai Sta., is famous for the architectural beauty of its black-lacquered main building and has been designated as a National Treasure. The shrine was originally established in Mizusawa, the south of Iwate Pref., in Heian period (end of 8th–12th century). After then it was moved to the city of Osaki, the north of Sendai, in Muromachi period (end of 12th–16th century) and its present name "Osaki Hachimangu" was getting common. Finally, the shrine was moved in 1607 to its present site by Date Masamune.

Zuihoden Hall (瑞鳳殿), 15 min. by "Loople Sendai" bus from Sendai Sta. to Zuihoden-mae Bus Stop and a 10-min. walk, is the mausoleum of the Date family. Its Main Hall and Oratory Hall, recently reconstructed in quite gorgeous style decorated by black-lacquer and gold leaf known as the Momoyama style, are renowned for their imposing architectural beauty. Open: 9:00–16:30, –16:00 (Dec.–Jan.). Closed: Dec. 31. Admission: ¥550.
Sightseeing bus service “Loople Sendai”
The hop-on hop-off bus service offers easy access to major sightseeing spots in the city center. 1-day pass: ¥620

[Guide to “Loople Sendai” Bus]
AER (アエル), 3 min. walk from ① Sendai Sta. bus stop, located north of Sendai Sta., is a Sendai City landmark. There are many shops and restaurants inside. On the 31st floor, you can view Sendai City from the observatory.

Bunka Yoko-cho (文化橫町), ② Aoba-dori Ave./Ichibanchou bus stop, is a side street with various kinds of restaurants.

Sendai City Museum (仙台市博物館), 3 min. walk from ③ Sendai City Museum/ Sendai International Center bus stop, houses about 97,000 historical and cultural artifacts including National Treasures and Important Cultural Properties. Open: 9:00–16:45. Closed: Mon, day following a national holiday & Dec. 28–Jan. 4. Admission: ¥460.

Aoba-jo Shiryo Ten-kan (青葉城資料展示館), ④ Site of Sendai Castle bus stop, is a museum exhibiting many historical artifacts (swords, letters and the like) related to the Date family. In the Hi-Vision Theater you can see detailed computer graphics images of the scenery of Sendai Castle. Open: 9:00–17:00, –16:00 (Nov. 4–Mar. 31). Admission: ¥700.

Botanical Gardens, Tohoku University (東北大学植物園), short walk from ⑤ Aobayama Botanical Gardens Gate bus stop, is a virgin forest of fir trees populated with many kinds of scarce wild plants, flowers, birds and small animals (squirrels, foxes, hares). Open: (from Vernal equinox day–Nov.) 9:00–17:00. Closed: Mon. (or the following day after the holiday when Mon. falls on a national holiday) and in winter (from Dec. to late Mar.). Admission: ¥220.

Museum of Natural History, Tohoku University (東北大学理学部自然史資料館), 1 min. walk from ⑥ Tohoku University’s Museum of Natural History bus stop, exhibits its research results and knowledge for nature and evolution of life on earth. Their specimen collections (fossils of every geologic period, rocks and minerals from around the world, and topographical maps of mainly Asia) are of especially fine quality. Open: 10:00–16:00. Closed: Mon. (or Tue. when Mon. is a national holiday) & New Year holiday. Admission: ¥150.

AKIU

Akiu Onsen (秋保温泉), 55 min. by bus from Sendai Sta. to Akiu Onsen Yumoto bus stop, located about 13 km west of central Sendai, Akiu is one of three most famous hot springs in Tohoku.

Rairai Gorge (雷電峡), 55 min. by bus from Sendai Sta. to Nozoki-bashi bus stop, is located at the entrance to Akiu Onsen and is filled with strangely shaped boulders and rocks. The gorge also affords a beautiful landscape in the springtime with fresh new leaves and autumn foliage enjoyable in the fall.

SHIOGAMA

Shiogama Shrine (出雲神社), 15 min. walk from Hon-Shiogama Sta., stands on a wooded hill in the city center of Shiogama. The shrine, its current buildings were reconstructed in 1794, has long been revered as the abode of the guardian deities of seafarers and expectant mothers. The main approach through the stone Torii gate is up a set of steep stone stairs and under two more gates to the Main Hall. It is a good place to get a fine view of Shiogama Bay. In the vicinity are a 600-year-old holly tree, a stone sundial with Roman numerals presented in 1792, and a huge ancient copper lantern. The museum attached to the shrine displays swords, armor and old documents. Also on display are materials connected with salt manufacturing and fishing from the Stone Age to the present day. [Museum] Open: 8:30–17:00. Closed: Mon. (or Tue. when Mon. is a national holiday) & New Year holiday. Admission: ¥200.

MATSUSHIMA

Matsushima and Kinkasan Island

Matsushima

Matsushima-ji Temple (松島寺), 5 min. walk from Matsushima-Kaigan Sta., is the most representative Zen temple in the Tohoku District and is also the family temple of the Date, being originally completed reconstruction in 1609 by order of Date Masamune. In the eastern corner of the compound lies a temple museum displaying cultural properties associated with the temple and the Date family. Open: 8:00–15:30 (Dec.–Jan.). Closed: Mon. (or Tue. when Mon. is a national holiday) & New Year holiday. Admission: ¥150.

Seto Inland Sea

Seto Inland Sea (瀬戸内海), 5 min. walk from Seto Inland Sea via Seto Inland Sea view, or take the Seto Inland Sea Expressway and Seto Inland Sea Expressway. The Seto Inland Sea is a strait in the Pacific Ocean. It is known for its unique topography, with islands, inlets, and shallow water. The Seto Inland Sea is bordered by the island of Shikoku and the island of Honshu.

Matsushima Bay

Matsushima Bay (松島湾), 5 min. walk from Matsushima-ji Temple, is a bay located on the eastern coast of Japan. It is known for its unique topography, with islands, inlets, and shallow water. The bay is bordered by the island of Shikoku and the island of Honshu.

Matsushita

Matsushita (松下), 5 min. walk from Matsushita Station, is a city located in the northern part of Japan. It is known for its unique topography, with islands, inlets, and shallow water. The city is bordered by the island of Shikoku and the island of Honshu.

Kagurazaka

Kagurazaka (神楽坂), 5 min. walk from Kagurazaka Station, is a district located in the northern part of Japan. It is known for its unique topography, with islands, inlets, and shallow water. The district is bordered by the island of Shikoku and the island of Honshu.

Kamakura

Kamakura (鎌倉), 5 min. walk from Kamakura Station, is a city located in the northern part of Japan. It is known for its unique topography, with islands, inlets, and shallow water. The city is bordered by the island of Shikoku and the island of Honshu.

Hakone

Hakone (箱根), 5 min. walk from Hakone Station, is a city located in the northern part of Japan. It is known for its unique topography, with islands, inlets, and shallow water. The city is bordered by the island of Shikoku and the island of Honshu.

Mount Fuji

Mount Fuji (富士山), 5 min. walk from Mount Fuji Station, is a mountain located in the central part of Japan. It is known for its unique topography, with islands, inlets, and shallow water. The mountain is bordered by the island of Shikoku and the island of Honshu.
Godaide (五大堂), 10 min. walk from Matsushima-Kaigan Sta., lies on a pine-clad islet. Rebuilt by order of Date Masamune, the worship hall is reached by 2 short bridges. The islet often appears in pictures as the symbol of Matsushima and is registered as an Important Cultural Property.

Kanran-tei (観瀬亭) or Wavelet-Viewing Pavilion, 6 min. walk from Matsushima-Kaigan Sta., is situated on Cape Tsukimi (Moon-Viewing) near Matsushima-Kaigan Pier. This pavilion is a simple wooden tea house with two rooms said to have been given by warlord Toyotomi Hideyoshi to Lord Date toward the end of the 16th century. Moved from Fushimi-Momoyama Castle, Hideyoshi's residence near Kyoto. The sliding screens in one of the rooms are said to have been painted by an artist from the Kano school, one of the foremost painting school from late 15th century to mid 19th century. In the garden stands a small museum exhibiting materials associated with the Date family. Open: 8:30–17:00 (Apr.–Oct.), 8:30–16:30 (Nov.–Mar.). Admission: ¥200.

Oshima Island (雄島), 5 min. walk from Matsushima-Kaigan Sta., is a small picturesque island connected with the mainland by the vermilion wooden Togetsukyo Bridge (Moon Crossing Bridge). The island was once used as a retreat for priests, and no women were permitted to enter.

Saigyo Modoshi No Matsu Park (西行戻しの松公園), 20 min. walk up the slope behind Matsushima-Kaigan Sta., is the most visited park in Matsushima, located in the elevated ground. The park commands a nice panoramic view of the Matsushima bay. Crowds flock to the park in the spring time to enjoy the cherry blossoms.

KINKASAN
Kinkasan Island (金華山), lies off the southern tip of Oshika Peninsula. Mt. Kinkasan, alt. 444 m, is a pyramid-shaped small mountain in the center of the island, covered with dense forest, home to wild deer and monkeys. In spring, the entire mountain is covered in greenery. Halfway up the mountain stands Koganeyama Shrine, well worth a visit.

Senjojiki (千畳敷), almost 3 hrs. on foot from the pier, extends along the island's eastern shore. The name means "stretch of Tatami-shaped rocks" although the translation does not do justice to the fantastic rectangular patterns of the rock formations. Lodging one night at prayer's guest house in Koganeyama Shrine would be the best to explore the Island to Senjojiki.

Note for scheduled boat service to Kinkasan Island: Available only on Sundays both from Ayukawa port (20 min.; thr. 30 min. by bus from Ishinomaki Sta.) and Onagawa port (35 min.; 5 min. walk from Onagawa Sta.). Because of its limited schedule, asking the latest information at your nearest tourist information center would be highly recommended.
Chuson-ji Temple (中尊寺), 10 min. by local loop bus “RunRun” (運運バスるんろん) or 25 min. walk from Hiraizumi Sta., set amid thick woods, was originally founded in 850. At that time, there were more than 40 buildings in the area, but most of those have been destroyed by war and fire. Remaining to this day are only Konjikido and Kyozu (see followings for the details), reminiscent of its earlier splendor. Open: 8:30–17:00 (Mar. 1–Nov. 3), 16:30 (Nov. 4–Feb.). Admission: ¥800 (Including Konjikido, Kyozu and its museum ”Sankeozi”).

Konjikido (金色堂) or Golden Hall, is designated as a National Treasure. Its name was derived from the fact that the hall was covered by gold leaf. The Naijin (Inner Chamber) of the hall has 3 altars. The remains of 4 rulers of the Fujiwara family—Kiyohira, Motohira, Hidehira and Yasuhira, rest beneath these 2 altars.

Kyozo Hall (經蔵) or Sutra Hall, designated as an Important Cultural Property, was originally founded in 1122. Buddhist Sutras used to be kept here, but these are now moved to Sankeozi (鶴岡八幡宮) Museum, housing more than 3,000 National Treasures.

Motsu-ji Temple (毛越寺), 3 min. by local loop bus or 10 min. walk from Hiraizumi Sta., was founded in 850. The garden of the temple is a good example of the Jodo-style garden, laid out in the style of “Jodo” or paradise according to the Buddhist principles. Open: 9:00–17:00 (Mar. 1–Nov. 31), 16:30 (Dec. 1–Mar. 31). Admission: ¥300.

Takkoku-no-Iwaya Bishamon-do (滝谷観音門堂), 10 min. by taxi from Hiraizumi Sta., is designated as a National Historic Site. On the surface of a huge rock forming a steep cliff near the cave, a huge Buddha image can be found. According to history, the image is said to date from the end of the 11th century. Open: 8:00–17:00 (Apr. 1–Nov. 23), 16:30 (Nov. 24–Mar. 31). Admission: ¥300.

Hiraizumi Local Loop Bus “RunRun”
The bus runs every 15–30 min. connecting major sightseeing spots in the town. Fare: ¥150 per ride, ¥400 for one-day pass.

Hiraizumi Sta. 3 min. Motsu-ji Temple 3 min. Yukyu-no-yu (Hot Spring) 1 min. Hiraizumi Cultural Heritage Center 3 min. Chuson-ji Temple 4 min. Takadachi Gikeido (Yoshitsune Hall) 2 min. Muryoko-in Temple Remains 2 min. Michi-no-eki HIRAIZUMI (Takagi no Gosho Remains) 2 min. Hiraizumi Sta.

Goodwill Guide Groups offer tourists from overseas local tours guided in English or other languages. The guides are registered with JNTO and display the badge shown. As they are volunteers, there is no charge for their service. You are only expected to pay for their transportation, admission to tourist facilities if you visit any and their meals if you eat with them.
