Hanami 花見

Hanami, Cherry Blossom Viewing is a common sight in the spring in Japan. When the cherry blossoms - "sakura" are in full bloom, usually from the end of March to April, picnic parties among families, friends and colleagues are held under the cherry trees, where everyone merrily enjoys eating, drinking and socializing.

Hana Matsuri 花まつり

Hana Matsuri, A Floral Festival to celebrate the Buddha's Birthday is held at all Buddhist temples on the days centering around April 8, which is said to be the Buddha's Birthday. At the temples, small images of Buddha are open to the public and Amacha (sweet tea) is poured over the images as an expression of devotion. Chigo-Gyoretsu, parades of children in fancy attire, pulling a papier-mache white elephant, a sacred animal associated with the Buddha, are also held at many temples.
